What is Paid Leave for?

Minnesota workers can use Paid Leave when they need to take time off work for an extended period. This includes:

- Medical Leave, to manage their own serious health condition
- Family Leave, to:
 - Welcome a child through birth, adoption, or foster care
 - Care for a family member with a serious health condition
 - Support a family member's military service
 - Respond to safety concerns like domestic violence or stalking

In one year, someone can take up to 12 weeks of Medical Leave or 12 weeks of Family Leave. If someone qualifies for both, they can take up to 20 weeks total in a year.

Who does Paid Leave cover?

Paid Leave coverage is very broad. Paid Leave covers nearly every employer, regardless of business size, revenue, or number of employees. It covers nearly every employee – including full time, part time, temporary, and most seasonal workers.
